PIAA Radio Network to Broadcast All 12 Baseball and Softball Championship Games

Live coverage of all games can be heard on the PIAA website and YouTube.

MECHANICSBURG, PA – The Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association, Inc. (PIAA) is proud to provide all 12 games of the 2026 PIAA Baseball and Softball Championships broadcasting live on the PIAA Radio Network.

Fans across the Commonwealth and nationwide will have the opportunity to follow every pitch, hit, and championship moment through comprehensive live coverage of all six baseball and six softball title games.

The broadcasts will be available free of charge to radio stations throughout Pennsylvania, allowing local communities to carry championship coverage for their schools and student-athletes. In addition, fans may listen directly through the PIAA Radio Network, ensuring statewide access to every championship contest.

The PIAA Radio Network will be accessible through the PIAA website and streamed via YouTube, providing free, easy access for listeners across Pennsylvania and beyond. The PIAA Radio Network's coverage will feature play-by-play commentary, analysis, and interviews, bringing the excitement of Pennsylvania's premier high school baseball and softball championships. The baseball championships will feature Eric Thomas, Bob McCool and Rich Scarcella with producer Matt Flannery. Tyler Polk and Lee Mohn will be on the call for the softball championships with producer Garrett Dollan.

Whether attending in person or following from home, fans will have access to every game as teams compete for PIAA gold. Additional broadcast information, including listening options and ways to watch, will be announced prior to the championships.

To access the live streams, head to the PIAA website (piaa.org) and click on "Listen Live," or search the PIAA Radio Network on YouTube. Any station looking to use the feed, please email media@piaa.org.

Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association

Beginning in Pittsburgh, on December 29, 1913, PIAA was given the privilege of serving its member schools and registered officials by establishing policies and adopting contest rules that emphasize the educational values of interscholastic athletics, promote safe and sportsmanlike competition, and provide uniform standards for all interscholastic levels of competition.
