COACH/SPECTATOR DECORUM

Crowd control before, during, and after contests is recognized as a major problem confronting athletic administrators.

The responsibility for the control of crowds and the protection of persons who are present at contests involving PIAA member schools rests on both of the schools, and, most specifically, upon the Principal of each school.

ARTICLE X, LOCAL MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL, Section 2D, of the PIAA Constitution, imposes upon the Principal of the home school the responsibility for the treatment of all visitors and sports officials who attend Contests conducted by the school. If a Contest is played at a neutral location, the Principals of the participating schools are jointly responsible for the protection of visitors and sports officials. Under the PIAA Constitution and By-Laws, various penalties may be imposed upon a member school whose Principal fails to provide the required reasonable protection for sports officials and visitors. ARTICLE XIII, PENALTIES, Section 2E, of the PIAA By-Laws, specifically provides that suspension may be imposed when a school neglects to provide reasonable safeguards for the protection of Contest officials and visiting Teams. That suspension may consist of suspension of the school from membership in PIAA, or the suspension of one or more of the school’s Teams from interscholastic athletic competition with PIAA member schools.

Although the provisions referenced above impose the primary responsibility for crowd control upon the home school and its Principal, visiting schools are also responsible for preventing and controlling incidents at Contests. ARTICLE XIII, PENALTIES, Section 2G, of the PIAA By-Laws, provides that a school or its Teams may be suspended when the conduct of its administration, faculty, Coaches, Teams, students, or Team followers is unsportsmanlike and results in actions which are detrimental to individual, school, and/or public welfare, and/or which are prejudicial to the purpose of PIAA. This provision has been invoked in situations involving crowd control problems on the part of visiting schools.

Crowd control incidents generally involve students and other spectators. While a school has a greater range of authority and permissible action against a student than it does against other spectators, one portion of the PIAA By-Laws dealing with athletic courtesy provides that any spectator who continually evidences poor sportsmanship should be requested not to attend future Contests.

To protect the status of PIAA member schools and to preserve the educational and recreational advantages of a well-administered program, the following guidelines have been developed:

1. Prior to each sports season, assembly programs should be held that make very clear to the student body what is expected of them as spectators. Exchange assemblies should be conducted with those schools whose rivalry could cause a spectator problem.

2. Notification, preferably both oral and written, should be given to all adult followers that inform them that (a) they are guests of the school and (b) unruly conduct will not be tolerated.

3. Contests should not be oversold. Previous experience has demonstrated clearly that problems are more likely to occur when a contest is attended by more spectators than the capacity of the facility.

4. An adequate number of law enforcement officers should be hired for all contests. The number of law enforcement officers needed to provide adequate security must be determined by the owner or director of security of the facility. The owner or director of security of the facility is in the best position to determine what is adequate security for its facility.

5. Should all of the law enforcement officers, as determined by the owner or director of security of the facility, should have the authority to remove, and/or arrest, any spectator whose conduct is detrimental to the contest taking place.

6. An administrator and coach(es) conference(s) should be held prior to the start of each sports season. Each coach should be advised that the athletic area is his/her classroom, and immature outbursts will not be tolerated.

7. The host Principal, Athletic Director or their designee should meet before every Athletic Event with contest officials and head coaches to outline the responsibilities of each and to emphasize that the contest officials are to immediately impose the prescribed penalties for any untoward behavior.

8. The host Principal and Athletic Director should assure that:
   (a) Proper parking is available for contest officials.
   (b) A representative of the school greets and escorts the contest officials while they are at the contest site.
   (c) Contest officials are quartered in dressing facilities separate from those of either Team.
   (d) Sports officials’ regular season contest fees/paperwork are distributed prior to the beginning of the contest. This precludes any further visit to the contest officials’ locker room.
   (e) No member of the coaching staff of either team visits the contest officials’ dressing room.

9. PA Crimes Code Section 2712, Assault on Sports Official, is a first degree misdemeanor and a maximum of $10,000 fine and five years in jail. PA Crimes Code Section 2701, Simple Assault, is a second degree misdemeanor, which carries a maximum penalty of $5,000 fine and up to two years imprisonment. A sports official (enforcer of event rules i.e. umpire, referee, coach, school officials, etc.) at any sporting event.
